

SCIENTIFIC AND PEDAGOGICAL INTERNSHIP IN THE EUROPEAN INSTITUTE FOR INNOVATION DEVELOPMENT

General Information and Requirements

GENERAL INFORMATION

The European Institute for Innovation Development

is a modern scientific, research, and pedagogical organisation that implements programmes in science, education, art, culture, and innovative technologies, promotes the professional development of scientific personnel, the intellectual development of children, adolescents, and students.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The European Institute for Innovation Development

organises and conducts scientific and pedagogical training of scientific personnel in 7 scientific fields in the framework of advanced training and obtaining academic titles

GENERAL INFORMATION

Each internship lasts 180 academic hours.

The training load of the internship is divided into 7 blocks:

1. History of science (according to the specialty) – 20 hrs.
2. Modern trends and innovations in science – 20 hrs.
3. Modern pedagogical technologies in education – 20 hrs.
4. Preparation of abstracts of a scientific and methodological report on the chosen subject (job profile of the applicant) – 36 hrs.
5. Rules of scientific articles' creation and design – 8 hrs.
6. Preparation of scientific article to publish – 36 hrs.
7. Personal work - 40 hrs.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Full version of this presentation is available for review to the participants of the internship

